

Crestview at a Glance....

Week of September 21, 2020

We hope that you had a wonderful weekend and you had time to enjoy the autumn sun☺

Birthday Celebrations

- Birthday messages will be made through the intercom during the daily morning announcements.
- In addition, students will be receiving a small present from the school team in recognition of their birthday.
- Due to the pandemic, unfortunately, no baked goods or food treats can be brought to school for a birthday celebration.

Hope

- Hope is our ASISTA therapy dog.
- She visits and supports students throughout the day.
- She has a new Instagram page, make sure to follow her @_allyouneedishope

- Anyone with fever or flu-like symptoms must stay home

More details to follow! Stay tuned!

Covid 19 update

- Following yesterday's press conference and the trend of increased cases; it is important that we all do our part to control the spread of COVID 19.
- Please advise the school if your child is being tested for COVID 19.
- Reminder to take your child's temperature every morning and monitor any symptoms.
- Also, in keeping with the directives from public health, all visitors need to have an appointment to visit the school.
- A great big thank you for your continuous support in helping us follow the Back to School Protocols😊

Inventory for devices

- Reminder to inform your child's homeroom teacher, if you would require a laptop for remote learning.

Pedagogical Day

- Friday, September 25 is a pedagogical day, there is no school for students.
- If you require daycare services, please contact Maria Soulis, msoulis@swlauriersb.qc.ca.

Wishing you a fabulous week!
